DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed September 12, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant has fail to response to Examiners concern with respect to the enablement of the specification. As stated in office action dated June 7, 2006, Examiner is unclear as to what key or keys are being encoded during the process of encoding. Specification page 5, line 9 to page 6, line 21 does not provide full, clear, concise and exact term as to enable one of ordinary skill in ~~the~~ art to carry out this invention with regards to what key is being encoded. Nor does the specification recite which keys are being pressed any number of times or which keys are being held to reach a pre-set time period.

Therefore, Examiner maintains above office action and Examiner re-iterate concerns with regard to the specification in this action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 7-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Examiner cannot find the phrase "scramble code" or the phrase "generate a scramble code" in applicant's specification (see New claims 9, 11, 16, 19, 21, and 26). Examiner cannot find language in the specification to support (New) claim 20. Claims 9, 11, 19, 20, 21 and 26 constitute new matter.

Examiner raised the issue of enablement in the previous office action. Applicant is asked to respond to the Examiner's concerns. Examiner is unclear as to what key or keys are being encoded during the process of encoding. Specification page 5, line 9 to page 6, line 21 does not provide full, clear, concise and exact term as to enable one of ordinary skill in the art to carry out this invention with regards to what key is being encoded. Nor does the specification recite which keys are being pressed any number of times or which keys are being held to reach a pre-set time period.

Conclusion

3. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
